Event Background

In 2015, President Xi Jinping's successful state visit to the UK heralded our global comprehensive strategic partnership for the 21st century. President Xi said that the China-proposed Belt and Road Initiative is an open, diversified and win-win project poised to bring huge opportunities for the development of China and many other countries. He highlighted that the industrial structures of China and the UK are highly complementary, their similar philosophies in advocating open markets, and their same willingness to promote free trade and to increase investment. The development of China-UK cooperation within the "One Belt, One Road" framework is very promising with enormous potential. In the course of President XI's visit to the UK, a series of new cooperation agreements were concluded between both parties in areas such as nuclear energy and finance which will bring about great benefits for the citizens of both countries.

On 24 April 2017, HE Liu Xiaoming, Chinese Ambassador to the UK addressed the keynote speech 'Cherish the Golden Era And Build A Better Future' at CCCUK's standing committee meeting. He pointed out that 2017 is a special year for China and the UK, for this year marks the 45th anniversary of Ambassadorial relations. Chinese enterprises in the UK have been the "stabilizers", "boosters" and "speakers" of the "Golden Era" of China-UK relations. China-UK practical cooperation has seen 45 years of intense development, forming a highly interdependent bond for mutual benefit and win-win results. These achievements cannot make without the contributions of Chinese enterprises in the UK.

He highlighted that Chinese enterprises in the UK have always been the passionate advocates, resolute defenders and an important link of China-UK cooperation. CCCUK is the big family that brings them together. It not only provides an important bridge for the communication and cooperation between British and Chinese enterprises, but also provides a solid platform for its Chinese business members conducting trade and economic cooperation in the UK. CCCUK have made three major contributions in the "Golden Era" of China-UK relations. First, it helps promote the economic and financial cooperation between China and the UK, bringing more stability and certainty to China-UK relations. Second, the acquisition and investment projects completed in the UK have played a positive role in promoting China-UK trade and economic collaboration. Third, the CCCUK actively participate in public welfare activities and support Chinese associations in promoting Chinese cultural activities, helping promote communications between China and the UK.

On 20 June 2017, the CCCUK held its 2017 Annual General Meeting (AGM) in London. More than 160 representatives from around 100 companies participated in the event, participants were from finance, insurance, technology, manufacturing, energy, transportation, media, publication, construction, and trading industries.

Mr. Jin Xu, the honorary chairman of the CCCUK and the Minister Counsellor of the Commercial Office of the Chinese Embassy in the UK, participated in the meeting and delivered a keynote speech. Mr. Jin identified the critical role of CCCUK due to the growing number of Chinese businesses' investments in the UK. For consolidating the "Golden Era" of China-UK relations, he pointed out that the CCCUK should leverage the unique role of the UK market and build a long-standing commitment to corporate social responsibility to provide better service to the members. The CCCUK should take actions to improve the national image of China by actively promoting "the Belt and Road" Initiative, enhancing communication and advancing practical cooperation between China and the UK.

Mr. SUN Yu, the CEO of the Bank of China (UK) Limited, elected as the new chairman of the CCCUK in March 2017, summarized the achievements of the CCCUK in 2016 and put forward the ideas of its future development based on the analysis of the UK's economic and social condition across the decades. He reviewed the past accomplishments and paved the way for a long-term development of the CCCUK. He believed the CCCUK could become a strong and unique trading association between China and the UK with a formal organizational structure and management system.

Mr. Sun said that Chairman of the CCCUK, is not only an honorary title, but also means reasonability. In the future, we will try our best to fully exploit the great potential of the CCCUK and promote communication and collaboration between China and the UK in this "Golden Era" of China-UK relations.

As a chamber of commerce representing the interests of Chinese-funded enterprises, safeguarding the rights and interests of Chinese-funded enterprises and serving Chinese-funded enterprises, the CCCUK has always been committed to enhancing humanistic exchanges and economic and trade cooperation between China and Britain and building on the cooperation of the two countries, creating more "Golden Fruit" in the "Golden Era" of China-UK relations. In the past year, the CCCUK organized and participated in nearly 40 events, covering various areas such as business forums, government meetings, training seminars and entertainment activities, attracting nearly 3,000 participants and making significant achievements in the bilateral cultural exchange activities and the economic and trade cooperation between China and Britain.
